PERPETUAL BUILDING ASSOCIATION

Pays 6 Per Cent on shares maturing in 45 or 83 months. It Pays 4 Per Cent on shares withdrawn be> fore maturity Assets Nearing $7,000,000

Surplus More Than $600,000

Corner 11th and E Sts. N.W. JAMES BERRY, President JOSHUA W. CARR, Secretary year, with the severe winter months pending, causes great apprehension, and justly so.

sneeze or shiver. If you wait till your bones ache, it may take longer. Doctor's Book in English, French, Spanish, Portuguese or German, on the treatment of

"77" for sale at all Drug and Country Stores. Humphrey's Homeo. Medicine Co., 156 William Street, New York.

WiTHOUT science, feeds teday could not be packed in glass commercially. Glass, of course, is the perfect container, but for 25 years we have employed chemists and other scientific men to work out means of scaling tumblers and jars so that you would receive your foods with their original purity and flavor unimpaired. This has been the problem and we have not failed to meet it.

The Cap that seals your glass-packed foods may never have had a second thought from you, but it is a vital part of the package. Look for the trade-mark. It stands for all that we have done and means that the packer has provided the best seal possible to obtain. Accept no glass-pasked foods

PHOENIX-HERMETIC COMPANY 2444 West 18th St. Chicago

Cuticura Shampoos Mean Healthy Hair

Especially if preceded by touches of Cuticura Ointment to spots of dandruff, itching and irritation. This treatment does much to keep the scalp clean and healthy and to promote hair growth.

PRESIDENT SOUGHT DEMOCRATS CLAIM ABSOLUTE POWER IN 1918, SAYS KNOX

Senator Issues His Version of Authority Which League

Proposal Implied.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, October 23.—Senator Philander Knox of Pennsylvania, former Secretary of State, who has in been prevented by ill health from making a contemplated western speaking trip in behalf of Senator Harding, issued a statement today through Senator Harry New, chairman of the republican speakers' bureau, bitterly criticising President Wilson and attacking the league of nations covenant.

Text of Statement.

The statament says: "On the threshold of the adjustment of America's relations to all the world and to the enemy that had cost us the lives of our best and bravest sons and a treasure beyond comprehension, the egoist of the White House, when manded, 'uncontrolled power,'

"In his demand for the election of a democratic Senate and House, in 1918 as he was about to take up his role as dictator of the world, and in order that his individual authority in this vast undertaking should not be entrampled by counsel, the President used this language: 'Unless you give me uncontrolled power you repudiate world.' He are the same and my leadership before the same and thouse, in the kentucky democratic majority around 40,000. If the women in the country districts turn out in larger proportions than did their city sisterength of the national ticket, it is calculated, will more than carry Sen
Republicans Not Making the same and my leadership before the same and thouse, in the kentucky democratic majority around 40,000. If the women in the country districts turn out in larger proportions than did their city sisterength of the national strength of the majority will be larger. The same and the same ne sallied forth single handed and

To get the best results take me uncontrolled power you repudiate me and my leadership before the world. He asked to be uncontrolled by the country whose servant he is. This meant that he wished to be be-yond human control, as at that time the word of the United States was

Americans Repudiate "The American people, with that great good sense which makes them worthy of their heritage, promptly repudiated the preposterous suggestion, and gave him a republican Senate and "Every living thing"-mailed and gave him a republican senate and House, whose courage and patriotism have saved what our grandsires estab-lished and our fathers preserved. "Unabashed by this rebuke, and with an obstinacy of purpose which had for an obstinacy of purpose which had for its end an ambition that would have aroused jealousy in the breast of an Alexander or a Napoleon, Mr. Wilson took his way to Paris, undertook to put us in a super-federation of the world by means of what is called a league of nations, and is now about to receive the nation's verdict through a grave and solemn referendum, in which he is represented by his proxy,

"If we are longer worthy of par-ticipating in a government we must examine and judge Mr. Wilson's su-preme effort, his so-called league of nations.

"The proposed covenant, instead of abolishing war, actually sanctions, breeds and commands it. Moreover, it absolutely requires that every future war shall be a potential world war, and that we shall be an active participant in every such war.

"The provisions of the proposed covenant also are destructive of our sovereignty. Lord Robert Cecil, the British high priest of internationalism, respecting—as an honest man always does—the intelligence of those who do not recognize party lines. There have developed two classes of independents, one the think-ing classes of independents, one the time. There have developed two classes of independents, one the time. There have developed two classes of independents, one the time. There have developed two classes of independents, one the time. There have developed two classes of independents, one the time. There have developed two classes of independents, one the time. There have developed two classes of independents, one the time. There have developed two classes of independents, one the time. There have found that political sectionalism in our country is near its end. We have asked support for the republican party; we have asked this some. There even break with the former classes and get an even break with the former classes and get an even break with the former classes and get an even break with the former classes of independents. There is no question that they should poll 85 per cent of the former classes and get an even break with the former classes and international support for the reasons. The democrats claim that they should poll 85 per cent of the former classes and get an even break with the former classes and get an even break with the former classes and in part:

"We have found that polltical sections in something the republican party; we have "Senator Harding's View.

"Senator Harding recognizes that we desire no specially insured relation to the league of nations and, therefore, that the league as proposed must be rejected and the energies of the world, under the leadership of the United States, directed to the formation of a true league of nations under which controversies may be judicially determined and the curse of war outlawed and made an international crime.

Quotes Dialogue.

"Senator Knox—Mr. President, allow me to ask this question: Suppose that it is perfectly obvious and accepted that there is an external aggression against some power, and suppose it is perfectly obvious and accepted that it cannot be repelled except by force of arms, would we be under any legal obligations to participate?"

"The President—No, sir; but we would be under an absolutely com-pelling moral obligation." "I can think of nothing more inexo-rable than absolutely compelling moral obligations."

COX'S INROADS MAY CUT G. O. P. PLURALITIES, BUT HARDLY SWING STATES

(Continued from First Page.) Cummins of Iowa, Lenroot of Wisconsin, Brandegee of Connecticut. Watson of Indiana are in hot water but expected to come through with a large Harding vote. Democrats Working on Hope Kentucky may send a republican senator and give the electoral vote to Cox. Utah may do the same. In Kentucky it would be a republican gain. The republicans expect to gain in Colorade and California the seats now held by democrats.

The best judgment of neutral observers outside of the two party or-Senate is in doubt, with the republicans having a shade the best of the outlook. In this, the last, week of the campaign both party organizations propose to make superhuman efforts, the republicans to hold what they have, the democrats to start a revolution which will stop the republican landside and divert it to their own ticket. The democrats are working on houe, the republicans standing pat on conditions known to exist. Those conditions the country over, appraised by all known practical measurement, point to republican state committee in 1916 and one of the foremost progressive leaders in the state, has gone over to ganizations is that the United States

KENTUCKY IS WON

Republicans Making Desperate Efforts to Elect Ernst to the U.S. Senate.

Special Dispatch to The Star.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., October 23.—
"There is no limit to the democratic majority in Kentucky."

Ten days before the election, this is the statement made by John L. Grayot, state campaign chairman. The tide, the democrats are confident, has turned their way.

has turned their way.

That Kentucky will again be found in the democratic column as far as the presidential ticket is concerned is practically admitted by the repub-licans, and some of the campaign officials are said to have conceded this truth privately. But desperate efforts are being made to get R. P. Ernst in as republican senator. Unbiased and experienced political observers, however, assert that this cannot be accomplished. Senator J. C. cannot be accomplished. Senator J. C. W. Beckham, it is conceded, will run behind his ticket, but not more than 5,000 votes behind. Registration figures in the fifty-eight cities and towns in Kentucky give the democrats a majority of some 4,000—something they never enjoyed in recent years. The cities are largely republican because of the big negro population. The country districts, except the mountain sections, are democratic. A comparison of registration figures of this year and 1916, if carried out proportionately, should make the Kentucky democratic majority ago said Kentucky was doubtful, are not making any claims at all now. This feeling seems to be in line with that gained when the Harding special was here. The feeling then seem the se ed to be that the republican candi-date had reached his zenith about October 1, but that he had been "slip-ping" since that time.

An air of victory pervades the dem-ocratic headquarters. The party man-agers declare that the rank and file are aroused as never before, and that their enthusiasm is an unfailing intheir enthusiasm is an unfailing indication of what may be expected at the polls on election day.

On the other hand, those at the republican offices plainly portray their uneasiness as election day approaches. One of the republican prophecies is that if fair weather prevails and there is no heavy rain for several days before November 2 in the mountain districts, thereby making the streams fordable, the eleventh district will turn out 30,000 or more majority and cut a big figure in or more majority and cut a big figure in deciding how the state shall go. This is regarded in the nature of an allbi by the democrats, who pregage victory no matter what the weather.

The Independent Vote. Though both parties are claiming the independent vote, the indications are unmistakably that the democratic ticket will receive the preponderance of the votes of those who do not recognize party lines. There have developed two voters registered here this year. Louisville's population is 250,000 in round numbers; the 1920 census said 15,000 less. In Detroit there were 200,000 registered voters in a city of nearly 1,000,000 persons. New York registered a littie over 900,000 voters, eight times as many as Louisville, while its population is more than twenty times as large.

Everybody wears a button and everybody talks politics.

The people of Richmond, as in all other places we have stopped are determined to rebuke the extravagance and the inefficiency of the democratic party. They are determined to vote November 2 in such a way as to guarantee the permanent independence of our country and to restore to it the American Constitution."

which controversies may be judicially determined and the curse of war outlawed and made an international crime.

The only fly in the democratic ointment in the fifth (Louisville) district has been the attitude of some of those who do not care to tell you the truth about the league of nations tell you the favorable to the recognition of the independence of Ireland, but this was in a great measure allayed by the radio of New York a Virginia points in the Ghen-I andoah Valley, and more extended speeches were given at an open-air two indoor meetings in Hagerstown, of two indoor meetings in two indoor meetings in Hagerstown, or with the truth about the league of nations and Job Hedges of New York at Virginia poin

SACRAMENTO, Calif., October 23.— While California today, ten days be-fore the election, is still apparently certain for Harding by a majority of between 50,000 and 100,000, the de-velopments of the last two weeks velopments of the last two weeks have shown increasing Cox sentiment among the large body of independent voters, who determine for whom California electoral vote shall be cast. Senator Harding's Des Moines speech, in which he declared that it was rejection and not revision of the league covenant for which he stood, served to draw the issue between those supporting the league and those opposing it clearer than it had hitherto porting the league and those oppos-ing it clearer than it had hitherto-been drawn in this campaign. This speech, together with the continued insistence of Senator Hiram Johnson that Harding's election means the scrapping of the league, has more than equnteracted the efforts of Root and Hoover to show that a republic-an victory does not mean any such an victory does not mean any such thing.

Cue Taken From Johnson In their campaign in California the republicans have taken their cue from Johnson. Led by Sam M. Shortridge, candidate for the United States Senate, their chief emphasis throughout pair and clear that's the way your skin will be if you'll take Doctor for the democrats to start a revolution which will stop the republican landslide and divert it to their own ticket. The democrats are starting and humors are utterly banished by this medicine. It takes away, more therewell the blood poisons or impurities, that cause them. For every Skin, scalp, and Scrofulous affection, no matter how it came, the "Biscovery" is made criam; sories and Swellings are completely and magistrate of this city, charged with the killing of Louis Waldman, sories and Swellings are completely and magistrate of this city, charged with the killing of Louis Waldman, sories and Swellings are completely and permanently benefited by it.

The "Discovery" is made from native roots without seconds, and can be had in liquid or tablet form from all dealers. It is one of the best temptor trial was entered by Garner's council.

The "Discovery" is made from native roots without seconds, and can be had in liquid or tablet form from all dealers. It is one of the best temptor trial was entered by Garner's council.

The "Discovery" is made from native roots without proposed to the worst conditions the campaign has been the destruction of the league through a republicans to their own ticks to the more irreconcilable than Shortridge. The result has been the destruction of the league through a republicans to their own ticks to the more irreconcilable than Shortridge. The result has been the destruction of the league through a republicans to their own ticks to their own ticks. The result has been the account to the democratic to the country over, appraised by all known practical measurement, point to republicans standing part on conditions the country over, appraised by all known practical measurement, point to republicans standing part on conditions the country over, appraised by all known to result has been to their own ticks.

The subject the democratic ticks. Other democratic tickst. Other democratic tickst. Other democratic tickst. Other the first woman to be chosen by either of the major parties for a high elective office in New York.

Candidate for Secretary Of State of New York

COOLIDGE BRINGS SOUTH TOUR TO END

Completes Week's Campaign With Speech at Frederick, Md.

FREDERICK, Md., October 23 (by the Associated Press).-Gov. Coolidge, republican candidate for Vice President, completed here tonight a week's campaign in southern and border states with a meeting in the state armory, at which he appealed for support of the republican party because "its principles are those of Lincoln and its traditions are those of Washington.' and what it proposes to have, is efficiency in a government operated in a stricter accord with the spirit and letter of the Constitution." He also declared for "the exclusion and ab-stention from any policies of adven-ture, whether domestic or foreign, which are abhorrent to our traditions and menacing to our institutions and Comments Upon Tour.

In a statement tonight commenting upon the tour, which carried him into Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia and Maryland, ov. Coolidge said in part:

The people of Richmond, as in all other places we have stopped, are promised to champion the main before the league of nations.

Ernst, the fepublican senatorial nominee, is coming in for a large share of unfavorable comment for his refusal to reply to the query propounded to him by the Irish-Americans as to his position with regard to the recognition of the so-called Irish the state hospital for the insane at the state hospital for the insane at Lima, Assistant County Prosecutor William Corrigan announced today when two alientsts, who examined the woman, reported her insane. She was recently bound over by the grand jury on a first degree murder charge. and attempted suicide, will be sent to the state hospital for the insane at worked their will for partisan advan-

GOV. COX PICTURES SAD SCENES IN U. S. IF LEAGUE IS LOST

(Continued from First Page.) played, and with a vim the large throng sang "The Star Spangled Ban-ner." The governor then proceeded in his address. In opening his address, Gov. Cox urged support for Gov. Smith of New York, asking that "the peddler boy of New York city be returned to the governor's chair. Tells of Visit to President. Turning immediately to the league ace won by our soldier boys be destroyed by a senatorial cabal. This and his usual offer to answer any league questions were applanded warmly, as was his tribute to Gov There was prolonged applause, with There was prolonged applause, with hundreds standing and cheering, when the governor declared that President Wilson was "as much a wounded soldier as any soldier." The governor told of his visit to the President, who, he said, presented "the saddest picture in all the history of the world."

During recital by the speaker of the league's genesis and its "sub-mission," for suggestions to former President Taft and Elihu Root, there President Taft and Ellihu Root, there were hisses from many quarters for the names of the two republicans. The name of Senator Lodge of Massachusetts also was hissed loudly, and "booed" when the governor reiterated his charge of conspiracy. Similar demonstrations were given when the governor named other republican senators signing the "round robin" and predicted their defeat. The governor interpolated a prediction that Senator Newberry of Michigan would be "returned to Michigan or some other safe place." The crowd shouted when the governor said that he believed Senator Harding would be "left at home." believed Senator Harding would be "left at home."

Gov. Cox's speech, closing his Atlantic coast campaign and climaxing a day of receptions, luncheons and other events, stressed agricultural, industrial, banking and other arguments for American participation in the

"The most serious depression the ountry has ever witnessed," was predicted by the nomines if the league cause was lost. Business depression already, he declared, "has grown intense" as a result of Senator Harding's statements on his league attitude.

ing's statements on his league attitude.

Reiterating that fimancial rehabilitation, credit and power, together with increased resources resulting from disarmament, would flow from the league's success, Gov. Cox declared:

"If we go into the league our fimancial power will guarantee that we shall never have to send an American army to fight in Europe. If we meet the opportunity that calls to us we can write the word 'American' across the page of the twentieth century history in letters of light."

Regarding compromising upon league reservations, Gov. Cox said:

"It is going to be necessary to make some compromise to secure the desired end, and that I am willing to do. I am for the ratification of the league with reservations, and have so stated my position in every speech finade from the Atlantic to the Pacific. I will accept reservations that are helpful, that will clarify, that will reassure our own people and that will make clear to our associates in the league the limitations of our Constitution, beyond which we cannot go, among which are the Hitchcock reservations."

"Another promise made by Gov. Con "Another promise made by do. Co. was that, realizing necessity for reforming federal agencies, he would not hesitate to call upon any man for ald, regardless of his politics."

for ald, regardless of his polities."

"As an executive of some experience, as a result of knowledge gained as a member of the appropriations committee in Congress and as a business man who has spent days and nights to make the ledger balance, I am keenly aware of the necessity to improve and modernize the executive machinery of our federal government and to bring into contact the best brains and experience America contains," he said.

"The United States government will be called upon the next year to expend between four and five biffied dollars. This is an amount several times greater than the disbursements of any private corporation in the country. I believe in team work.

"I recognize the evils that have come through bitter partisanship, accountasted by the senatorial oligarchy to defeat the treaty. My effort will, therefore, be to overcome this condition, and I shall not hesitate to call on any man, be he democrat or republican, independent or progressive, who can serve his country in this time of stress.

"America has been thrown into the world's economic whirlpool and harbeen held there while commitments.

tage.

Special machines are now designed for testing the alertness and other abilities of telephone operators.

PLANT NOW

Hyacinths, dozen, 75c to $1.50 Jonquils, dozen 50c Crocus, dozen Tulips, dozen......50c to $1.00 Freesias and Oxalis, dozen, 50c Paper White Narcissus, doz., 60c

1,000 FEATHER FERNS Special at 25c

KRAMER-The Florist 916 F St. N.W.

Cruise de Luxe

West Indies

Havana, Santiago, Port Antonio, Kingston, Panama, Port Limon, Costa Rica Most luxuriously appointed steamer, especially built for pleasure travel to the Palm garden, many rooms with bedsteads, private baths and suites. Music, ing, deck games, etc., throughout. Many delightful short excursions included e rate of $450 and up.

Other tours and cruises to Japan, China-South America-Europe-California and Honolulu Send for booklet of tour desired

> Frank Tourist Co. 489 Fifth Ave., Bet. 41st and 42d Sts.

Or Local Tourist Agent

MIX-UP THREATENS COX VIEW EXACTLY WISCONSIN G. O. P.

Republican Candidate for Governor Will Be Cut by Many in His Own Party.

Special Dispatch to The Star.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., October 23.—
In the closing days of the campaign a situation is developing which threatens Senator Irvine L. Lenroot republican candidate for senator, who is supported by the conservative wins of the republican party, and John J. Blaine, republican nominee for governor, indersed by the Non-Partisan League, who is the choice of Senator La Poliette and the radicais.

Senator La Poliette took the stump Thursday night in Milwaukee for James Thompson, the Non-Partisan League candidate for senator, defeated by Lenroot in the primaries.

Thompson is basing his campaign on opposition to the Esch-Cummin bill, for which Lenroot voted, and or hostility to the league of nations which Lenroot favored with reservations.

Believed Lenroot Will Win.

The general impression is that Lenrot will, win, despite the flank attack by La Polletis. It depends, however, on the vote Thompson is able to poll. If Thompson polls fewer than 100,000 votes, the Lenroot advocates believe their man will win. If he polls more than 100,000, the election of Dr. Paul S. Reinsch, the democratic cambidate, is regarded as a possibility.

Dr. Reinsch opened his campaign with a speech in Milwaukee this week in which he declared himself an advocate of the league of nations as proposed by President Wilson. He complicated matters to some extent, however, by declaring against the Esch-Cummins bill. This declaration, if followed up by his managers, may attract a large labor and railroad vote, which is not particularly interested in other issues and is on the outlook for the candidate who stands the best chance of defeating Lenroot.

The senatorial situation is also affected by the candidate of Frank J. Believed Learnet Will Win fected by the candidacy of Frank J. Weber, socialist, who is expected to poll a much larger vote than is or-dinarily received by the socialist nomince.

In ordinary times, under such circumstances, the election of Reinsch would be a foregone conclusion, but in this election the democratic party is also badly disrupted. In many German communities the party is broken up. Former democrats are dividing their votes among the four candidates. The situation is well known to republican managers, who forecast a majority of 200,000 for Harding and Coolidge and predict that Lenroot will be carried through on the republican wave.

The Estroot men are also encouraged by a fight which has broken out in the radical ranks between Victor L. Berger, socialist leader, on one side, and Sensior La Foliette and the Non-Partisan League crowd on the other.

The senatorial situation is also af side, and sentor he Pollette and the Non-Partisan League crowd on the other.

While La Pollette is cutting Lenroot to the limit of his ability, he does not command a monopoly of political tactics of that character. All over the state republican clubs are being organized to effect the election of Col. Robert B. McCoy, the democratic candidate for governor. The republicans who have joined these clubs mount into the tens of thousands. The independent vote also appears to be drifting to McCoy. The republican state central committee, after waiting for Blaine to declare himself for the republican platform and candidates, declared it would support no candidates who remained silest.

W. J. Moygan, the republican candidates for afterney sumeral, then took the stump for Col. McCoy, while the Non-Partisan League Indosed his democratic rival, Judge A. C. Larson.

J. C. RALETON. TERMINAL EMPLOYE SCALDED empley of the Washington Term Company, received skinfer scale his right reg last night while worl on a Baltimore and Onlo engia-the Ly City regnerouse. He given have and in the timeryway in In Onton station and taken to home at 65 W street.

LIKE PRESIDENT'S, DECLARES HUGHES

y the Associated Press. NEW HAVEN, Conn., October 23:-Voodrow Wilson might as well be the democratic candidate for President again this year as Gov. Cox, Charles E. Hughes declared in an address on the league of nations here tonight. "How vain it is to say that Mr. Cox is running for President, and not Mr. Vilson," Mr. Hughes exclaimed, adding: "The time has now passed for efforts to placate an autocratic executive. If

The time has now passed for efforts to placate an autocratic executive. If Mr. Cox is going to part company with Mr. Wilson, and is opposed to article X (of the league covenant), why should he not frankly say that he favors its elimination?"

The stands of Gov. Cox and President Wilson are identical, to commit the United States to the league with article X, and only meaningless reservations, Mr. Hughes asserted Neither the governor nor the President has changed in its attitude in this respect, and all insignations and declarations to the covenant in substance and insignations and declarations to the contrary are misstatements, he added.

Not Denial of Obligations.

"As Mr. Wilson says," continued Mr. Wilson was willing to agree to reservations which eliminated the obligation to be assumed by article X? If so, to use their own mode of expression, the assertion is false, demonstrably false.

"Mr. Wilson says," continued Mr. Wilson was willing to agree to reservations which eliminated the obligation was willing to agree to reservations which did not affect the covenant in substance and true import. Is it meant that Mr. Wilson was willing to agree to reservations which did not affect the covenant in substance as the substance or true import of the covenant in substance and true import. Is it meant that Mr. Wilson was willing to agree to reservations which did not affect the covenant in substance as the substance or true import of the covenant in substance as the substance or true import of the covenant in substance as the substance or true import of the covenant in substance and true import. Is it meant that Mr. Wilson was willing to agree to reservations which did not affect the covenant in substance as the substance or true import of the covenant in substance and true import. Is it meant that Mr. Wilson was willing to agree to reservations which eliminated the obligation to the assumed by article X? If so, to use their own mode of expression, the assumed by the treaty-making power to other nations, then it is bou what he considers a vacuous state-ment as to the way in which we dis-charge our obligations.

"We come now to the question of the attitude of Mr. Cox, and in view of his abhorrence of wobbling, we may suppose that it will exhibit a similar

May Start With Platform "We assume that in discussing the attitude of the candidate we may properly start with the platform of the democratic party. Unless the democratic platform intended grossly to deceive the people, it meant to say that the party indorsed President Wilson in his firm stand against any reservation which would impair the effectiveness of article X. Then, what of the candidate? Did he not say explicitly that he stood upon the democratic platform? Will he now say that he repudistes the democratic platform?

"This question came up acutely at once, and to settle it Mr. Cox made the pilgrimage to the White House, so that there should be no mistake of the entire concord of the two leaders.

Well Be Candidate," Says
G. O. P. Leader.

By the Associated Press.

Diatform?

"This question came up acutely at once, and to settle it Mr. Cox made the pilgrimage to the White House, so that there should be no mistake of the entire concord of the two leaders.

Mr. Cox said, 'We are agreed as to the meaning and sufficiency of the democratic platform.' President Wilson announced that he found that he and Goy. Cox were 'absolutely at one with regard to the great issue of the league of nations.'

"There is still a valiant old guard

"There is still a valiant old guard which, in spite of a complete demonstration as to what article X means and its antagonism to our most funda-mental principles, are determined to resist to the last the assaults of clearest reasoning. They say what Mr. Wilson did not insist on the agreement without change. They also assert that Mr. Cox is willing to accept "What is meant when It is said that

Mr. Wilson did not insist on the covenant without change?

Cites President's Letter.

HOUSE PAINTING DECORATING OR PAPERHANGING Call Col. 2318 PAUL H. LEVY

Notice to Public

The public in general and especially those interested in commercial aviation are cordially invited to view the working model of a newly designed commercial aeroplane having a wing spread of two hundred and forty feet and capable of carrying one hundred passengers. Commercial seroplanes are no longer a thing of the past or a dream of the future.

OFFICE OF THE COMPANY EGGLESTON AIR CELL AEROPLANE COMPANY.

> SUITE 516, M'GILL BUILDING, Washington, D. C.

"And, Ohl-Such Rugs'

Perhaps we shouldn't have listened, but we couldn't help hearing this bit of conversation by two ladies who had just left our rug department. "Tve never seen so many good looking rugs," said one. "No," replied the other, "never at one store, and they're so reasonable, too."

We might tell you more, but we don't want to bore you, but we DO want you to know that the Lifetime Furniture Store has the finest lot of patterns in rugs that they've ever shown-Fine Wiltonscolors as rich and lustrous as the Orientals themselves; good serviceable Velvet Rugs and the old standby for bedrooms—the Tapestry Brussels. Prices? you ask. Well, the Lifetime Furniture Store always sells everything as cheaply as goods of a like quality can be sold. You'll find our rugs unusual values-for instance, there's a big 9x12 Axminster at $69.75, a 9x12 Mottled Axminster at $48.75 and lots of others just as reasonable. There's one way to be sure-see for yourself-and soon,

Seventh Street Mayer & Co. Between D& B

